Which we Offer with a Year's Subscription to this Paper for a Trifle More than Our Regular Subscription Price. Wishing to largely increase the circulation of this paper during the next six months, we have made arrangements with a New York publishing house whereby we are enabled to effer as a premium to our subscribers a Set of the Works of Charles Dickens, in Twelve Large and Handsome Volumes, with a year's subscription to this paper, for a trifle more than our regular suberiptica price. Our great offer to subscribers clipses any ever lo retofore made. Charles Dickers was the greatest novelist who ever ived. No author before or since his time has won the fame that he achieved, and his work wen he have that he achieved, and he works are even more popular to-day than during his lifetime. They abound in wit, humor, pathes, masterly delineation of character, vivid descriptions of places and incidents, thrilling and skillfully wrought plots. Each back is intensely interesting. No homestonia premium to our subscribers is handsomely printed from cutirely new plates, with new type. The twelve volumes contain the following world-famous works, each one of which is published complete, unclauged, and absolutely unabridged: DAVID COPPERFIELD. WARTIN CHUZZLEWIT, NICHOLAS NICKELBY. TATIONS. DOMBEY AND SON.

For a The above are without question the most famous novels that were ever written. For a quarter of a century they have been relabrated in every nook and corner of the civilized world. Yet there are thousands of homes in America not yet supplied with a set of Dickens, the usual high cost of the books preventing people in moderate circumstances from enjoying this luxury. But how, owing to the use of modern improved printing, folding and stuching machinery, the extremely low price of white paper, and the great competition in the book trade, we are enabled to offer to our subscribers and readers a set of Dickens' works at a price which all can afford to pay.
